

Selichot Barbeque Dinner

On Rosh Hashanah, we confess our sins as individuals and as a community. We ask for forgiveness from others and from G-d. This introspection requires preparation before we can achieve this level of vidui, confession of sins. Selichot is a time of soul searching and reflection to prepare oneself for the magnitude of the High Holy Days.

Please join us on Saturday, September 1st at 7:30 PM for an evening of prayer, song, and of course, dinner. This year we will enjoy a full barbeque meal catered by Zan's Deli. The BBQ will consist of Roumanian steak, chicken kabobs, hamburgers, hot dogs, and veggie burgers in addition to corn on the cob, grilled vegetables, potato knishes, and health salad.

The cost is $36.00 per person and $18.00 for children under 12 years of age.

Please R.S.V.P. By calling the Temple office at 631-563-1660 by Friday, August 24th. Return the tear-off below with your check. We also accept credit cards.

Dinner will be followed by the service which will begin at about 9:30PM. You may attend the service without first coming to the dinner, if you wish.

Please mail all checks directly and payable to B'nai Israel Reform Temple. Please respond ASAP, and no later than August 24th.
