

B'nai Israel Reform Temple Bulletin

Rabbi Rosenthal's Message

Building a sukkah is one of my favorite activities to do with the family. Each step of the building process involves all of us, working together. The wood and other supplies need to be brought to the back yard. Posts need to be held while others drill them together. And then roof and walls need to be added and tied down. Once all of that is done, we work together to place the decorations, and lights inside and around the sukkah to make it bright and welcoming.

I love that this simple, temporary hut gets us outside, and that it connects us to each other and to the land.

I'll admit that our Sukkah is probably a far cry from the ancient huts described in our tradition. Although it is unclear exactly what the very first sukkot looked like and what they were used for. Some believe the huts were built so that farmers could live in them during the last months of the harvest. Others believe that the huts were linked to the pilgrimage to the Temple. The holiday itself is often called chag ha-asif, the Harvest Festival of ingathering.

Either way, Sukkot's history links us to the land, as the pilgrimage to the Temple was associated with offering up the bounty of our harvest, and harvest huts allowed us closer access to our bounty. And the holiday's current imagery and liturgy harken back to simpler times of gratitude for the harvest and prayers for rain at its conclusion.

In addition to connecting to our ancient ancestors a sukkah also links us to the marvel and wonder of the outdoors. We can peak through the roof, that is covered with natural material or scach and see the bright stars in between. We eat listening to sounds of the environment around us and take in the natural smells of the pine trees and leaves falling from the trees.

This year, I'm excited that our greater congregational family will get to join in with some of these beautiful sukkah themes. In partnership with the ritual committee, we recently purchased a sukkah to use outdoors, allowing all of us to engage in these wonderful moments.

While it is true that this means that our celebration will not be weatherproof, that in and of itself is part of what sukkot is about as well. The sukkah is meant to be a little flimsy, a little exposed to the elements, because that too connects us to the outdoors. As Rabbi Alan Lew z"l writes,

"In the sukkah, a house that is open to the world, a house that freely acknowledges that it cannot be the basis of our security, we let go of this need. The illusion of protection falls away, and suddenly we are flush with our life, feeling our life, following our life, doing its dance, one step after another."

Sometimes a reminder that we are not completely protected allows us to recognize our vulnerability and to connect even more deeply to our lands and to one another.

I hope that you will join us for our Sukkot Celebration on Sunday, October 9th, 2022. At 6:00 pm we will decorate our new outdoor sukkah, at 7:00 pm we will have a short service and afterwards we will share a potluck dessert.

Wishing everyone an early chag sameach from the entire Rosenthal family.

President's Message

Seth Berman

By the time that you are reading this message we are either halfway through the High Holidays or have completed the High Holidays. Either way you have already received your tickets to the services and a pledge card to make a donation for the Kol Nidre appeal.

If you have already made a donation for the appeal, we thank you. If you haven't made a donation as of reading this I ask that you please consider doing so. The appeal is our largest budgeted fundraiser that we do every year. These funds are integral to us being able to continue our operations. As I have said each time I have had to ask for donations, there is never a donation that is too small nor one that is too large.

The Jewish community on Long Island has changed and has shrunk over the years. It is no secret that as our members retire the vast majority decide to relocate to warmer locations down south. Combine that with less of the "younger" Jewish adults not affiliating with congregations, we as well as most congregations on Long Island have seen their memberships decrease. Unfortunately, a decrease in our membership does not mean a decrease in our expenses. So, this year when you do make your pledge I ask that if you can, please give just a bit extra to help our temple.

I am happy to see that as we have gotten further into our "re-opening" of in person services we have seen more congregants joining us for Friday night services. It is heartwarming to hear the community pray and sing in unison with your Rabbi and Cantor. If you haven't been to a Friday night service in a while we hope that you will join us in the near future.

In addition to our in person services we have also seen Sisterhood holding their events in person, Brotherhood has hosted a couple of breakfasts and religious school has begun their second year of returning to in person classes. While things might not be back to "normal" we are getting there.

In conclusion I would like to thank all the Ducks Volunteers that worked one or more games this year. I don't like to thank people by name as I am sure to leave out someone I do have to thank Joel Silverman for leading his "small army" in running the program for us. For those that are not familiar our volunteers work the concession stands at Ducks games and the Ducks give B'nai Israel a percentage of the sales. All these workers are pure volunteers and get no compensation other than our thanks. While this season is over we hope that in the spring when the baseball season starts up again you will consider to work one or more games for us. Donating your time for this fundraiser is just as good as writing a check to the temple!

I'Shana Tova and I'Shalom,

Seth C. Berman

Religious School News

The first day of Religious School was a huge success! Thank you to all of our volunteers, our staff and our students for making this day a wonderful welcome back to in person learning!

New students to our Religious School will be welcomed with a mini Torah and special blessing at our Consecration Service on October 14th An invitation in the mail will follow.

October 14th at 7:15 will be the family worship service featuring the sixth grade. Please join us for this very special service.

Outreach Report

Alice Lambert

If you attended any of the Rosh Hashanah Services, you might have received a grocery bag and asked to take part in our annual food drive by filling it with donations of nonperishable, nutritious food items. In addition to regular food, baby food, formula, and disposable diapers are in huge demand. You were asked to bring your donations to the Temple when you came to worship on Yom Kippur or at any other time during that week.

Many bags, overflowing with groceries, have already been returned, but it is not too late to donate...using our bags or your own. There are so many groups of people within our communities who are depending on our generosity in order to service their people. The need is greater than ever; people have not recovered financially since Covid, some have lost jobs and they can't keep up with rising food costs and rents.

If you find it difficult to get out to shop and carry heavy bags, please consider donating gift cards from local supermarkets and pharmacies. They are easy to purchase and bring, and easy for their recipients to use.

Once again I'm counting on all of you to be generous and help us to help others. There are many people depending on us, and I know that we will not disappoint

.Let us all pray for peace, love, and shalom as we continue through our High Holy Day season.

We are selling Grocery Store Food Cards!

The '22 Ducks season is a "wrap"

Joel Silverman

Seventeen ball games and two rainouts later the 2022 Ducks baseball season effectively ended for B'nai Israel on September 10th with a Saturday night fireworks game that saw eleven Temple volunteers earn an additional $2,300+ in concession commissions and tips. And that final big night brought total earnings for the summer to just over $22,000, a new record for B'nai Israel and a new record by far among all non-profit volunteer groups working for the Ducks over the years.

The season was highlighted by ups and downs based sometimes on the weather, sometimes on crowd size, and occasionally on over-staffing or under-staffing of the concessions. A windy, cold afternoon game in early May netted a low of $137 while several sell-out Saturday nights earned us more than $2,000 in a single evening. But overall, it was a terrific fund-raising opportunity and we were able to take full advantage.

A sincere thank you to a team of thirty-five Temple members, a few friends and family, and even a former member, for devoting almost 150 volunteer-days to make this the most successful of any fund-raising effort since the demise of our bingo program some years ago.

An in-person thank you is scheduled for Shabbat services and Oneg on Friday evening November 4th. If you were one of this season's Ducks volunteers, please put the date on your calendar and plan to join us at 8:00 PM that evening. Everyone else is encouraged to attend as well to join in thanking those volunteers for their significant contribution to the Temple's bottom line!

THANK YOU

First of all, I would like to thank the very many people and committees involved in making the High Holy Day services a reality. Preparation for these days, and all that is involved, takes several people many hours of planning. Thank you also to everyone who participated and worshipped together with us.

Now, we turn our creative energy into the coming month of October. I don't know about you, but autumn is my favorite season. The leaves changing color, the crispness in the air, pumpkins and thoughts of family getting together for the Thanksgiving holiday...it all makes me smile.

This October 9th, we, at B'nai Israel, will be celebrating the holiday of Sukkot by first decorating our new outdoor Sukkah at 6:00 p.m.!! This will be followed by a Sukkot service and a pot luck buffet of fall desserts. Please join us!

The following Sunday, October 16th, we will be celebrating the joyous holiday of Simchat Torah. Join us at 6:00 p.m. as we unroll the entire Torah scroll before your eyes! This is a truly awesome experience that you don't want to miss. This will be followed by a Torah parade and dancing and rejoicing in the parking lot. Looking forward to seeing you at these events!

Dynamic Chair Yoga with Bonnie Rubell

Dynamic Chair Yoga is an intermediate level yoga class held at our Temple every Thursday morning at 10:30 am.

This is an active yoga class for fit seniors who want to start or continue their yoga practices. This class presents modifications for many yoga poses. Students choose the modifications which work best for them. This is a Hatha chair approach aimed at building body strength for balance and flexibility for life activities such as walking, hiking, travel, dog walking, kayaking and more. Special therapeutic exercises on the Yoga mat will address typical age-related physical changes and conditions. Senior Yoga is strengthening, therapeutic and protective for body and mind. It's also social and fun. This class is also appropriate for all ages who want to get back to an exercise program after a long break.

Condolences: The B'nai Israel Reform Temple extends its deepest condolences to the Daniel family on the loss of Alleyne's daughter Deborah Daniel; to the Hoberman family on the loss of Stephen's father, Peter Hoberman; and to the Rosenthal family on the loss of Gina Rosenthal. May they find comfort in the blessings of good memories that will always be theirs.
