Rabbi Rosenthal's Message

Lech lecha, or go forth, is probably one of the most commonly recognized lines of the torah, and it appears in the first parsha of November. The parsha describes Abraham and Sarah's journey to a great land that God will show them. There is also a Divine promise for a blessing and the statement that our people will be made into a great nation with a great name. Our second Torah portion for the month, vayera, chimes in to clarify what this means. It speaks of the importance of hanasat orchim or welcoming. In the portion, Abraham and Sarah welcome three strangers into their tent who seek refuge from the hot sun.

This year, let us take to heart these shabbat messages, and go forth to a place of welcome, and inclusion. During this Hebrew month of Cheshvan, which primarily takes place during November, although begins in late October, we have a period of rest and reflection after our High Holy days and before Hanukkah. This is the perfect time to focus on these beautiful goals.

We are always looking for more ways to help people feel welcome and raised up for who they are. This month will include a couple of special opportunities that I'm eagerly looking forward to.

On Sunday, November 6th, we will welcome a transgender speaker from Keshet, a Jewish LGBTQ+ organization that shares resources and engages in LGBTQ+ advocacy work. I hope that you will attend their learning session to learn more about how to be an ally or advocate, and how to be a better support the work and challenges that our LGBTQ+ community engages in and faces. Our session will include lunch and begin at 11:30 am. It is sponsored by the brotherhood, and open to everyone.

On November 13th, we will host our annual Interfaith Thanksgiving with our Muslim and Christian neighbors, affirming once more that no matter how we pray and recognize the holy one – we are all Holy, sacred and made in the image of God. Please join us in welcoming our neighbors into our holy space.

And on a more personal level, we will be introducing a little bin in the temple for little ones, or kids who might naturally love to move around a bit and seek additional engagement. Most of the items will be shabbat or Jewish themed, and include stress balls, a few coloring pages, and a stuffed torah. This is just one more way we can say to all of our kids you are welcome at B'nai Israel, we recognize you as the next generation, take to heart the importance of you being in our shared holy space, and we love it when you come.

For our members in nursing homes and far away, and everyone else who stands to benefit from it, we will continue to offer zoom or Facebook live access to services.

Moving forward we will take these values to heart and will continue to explore new and exciting ways to become even more welcoming and inclusive.

Wishing you all a wonderful Cheshvan and November season.

President's Message

Seth Berman

It is hard to believe that the High Holidays are over for 5783. I compare it to Thanksgiving Dinner. You work hard for hours, and the dinner is eaten in a fraction of that time.

This year's services weren't without challenges. For those that joined us on Zoom thank you for your understanding as we dealt with our sound issues. A special thank you goes out to Mike Lambert, Paul Fink, and of course Jeannette Berman for the work they put into trying to make the sound the best it could be given the circumstances. And to our Rabbi and Cantor, thank you isn't a strong enough term. The amount of work and preparation they put into those 10 days can't be measured. To have to contend with "gremlins" in the sound system only made their difficult task just that much harder. Yom Kippur is challenging enough for us sitting in the pews, I can't fathom trying to adjust on the fly as we asked them to do.

Of course, thanks go out to everyone that made the services possible. My general rule (which I broke earlier in this article) is to avoid naming people individually for their hard work. I am going to go back to that rule but would like to thank those that took their time to make our services possible. Thank you to the choir, led by Roselyn, for singing throughout the holidays. Thank you to the countless volunteers who worked behind the scenes with the ritual committee, chaired by Sandy Weber, to make the services possible. Last but not least thank you to Karen in the office for all of her work in the preparations!

I am happy to say that each service had more in person attendance than last year. While we aren't at pre pandemic attendance, we are going in the right direction. Seeing the congregants in the pews warmed my heart.

If you haven't made a donation for the Kol Nidre appeal, it isn't too late. Please consider supporting the temple a little more. It goes a long way in running the temple. As I said in my speech it is more important now than ever.

I'Shalom,

Seth C. Berman

A few messages from Joel Silverman

A well-deserved thank you

If you've been in-person at B'nai Israel any time prior to or during the High Holy Days you probably noticed the attractive, colorful and well-cared-for appearance of the Temple property. While many are responsible and often receive thanks for keeping the Temple running smoothly, we rarely acknowledge the extraordinary work being done to care for the landscaping and grounds. But "for the record," that work, often taken for granted, is being done diligently, capably and tirelessly by our own Lesli Vohwinkel and her able assistant, Temple member Fern Fier. Day after day, week after week, from earliest spring through leaf clean-up in late fall, they labor to plant, grow, water, and trim; to keep-up, maintain and clean-up the never-ending landscaping chores that keep our property looking professionally cared-for throughout the year.

The B'nai Israel community says "thank you" to both Lesli and Fern. To show your appreciation for their effort, when you get a chance, please add your personal thanks for their job well-done.

Long Island Ducks Shabbat and Oneg

During the 2022 baseball season that just ended, B'nai Israel volunteers earned $22,457 in commissions and tips working concession stands for the Long Island Ducks. Please join us on Friday evening, November 4th at 8:00 PM, for a special service and Oneg to recognize and say thanks to the 35 Temple volunteers who contributed their time and effort to make that by far our most profitable fund-raiser once again this year.

Veterans Day - November 11th

For the first time in a number of years, Veterans Day, November 11th, actually falls on a Friday and gives B'nai Israel a chance to celebrate the holiday at a Shabbat service on that very day. If you are a veteran of any U.S. military service please put that date on your calendar. Whether draftee, volunteer, or reservist, National Guard or full-time, in peace or in war-time, please join us to help commemorate your service and give the Temple community a chance to say "thank you." The Rabbi and Cantor will give a special blessing to veterans in attendance. Those who are members of veteran's organizations are encouraged to wear related insignia and appropriate articles of uniform or clothing.

As always Temple families, including the kids and friends, are invited to join us that evening at a Family Service at 7:15 PM, to pay honor to those who have served our country.

Again, I would like to thank the very many people and committees involved in making the High Holy Day services so special. Preparation for these days, and all that is involved, takes several people many hours of planning and doing. Thank you also to everyone who participated and worshipped together with us.

There was no rest for us as we moved directly into Sukkot. It was a joy to see all of you who came to decorate our new outdoor Sukkah! Thank you to the Building and Grounds committee for the assembly of the Sukkah. Thank you to Natalie for organizing the wonderful fall dessert buffet, and to everyone who baked decorated, and participated in the evening.

As I am writing this article in early October, Simchat Torah is next week. We hope that you were able to join in the celebration of completing the Torah and starting anew at the beginning.

Now, we are working on our hosting of the first Interfaith Thanksgiving service since before the pandemic. It is with great pleasure, that we will be opening our doors and our arms once again, to our friends at St. John Nepomucene Church of Bohemia and the Selden Mosque at 7:00 pm on Sunday, November 13th. This is always a favorite service of mine. We all come together, under one roof, in prayer and song, as one united community. Please join us for this very special evening. There will be a delicious dessert buffet in our social hall immediately following the service.

Save the date of Sunday, December 18th for our annual Community Menorah Lightings to celebrate the joyous holiday of Hanukkah!!

Wishing you and yours a wonderfully meaningful Thanksgiving holiday!

Ritual Committee

Outreach Report

Alice Lambert

The 2022 annual food drive was an overwhelming success!! Thank you to everyone who very generously brought food, personal hygiene items, or diapers. The huge piles of bags in the coat room have been donated to the Chestine Coverdale Sayville Food Pantry and the Eastern Suffolk Farm Workers and were very greatly appreciated.

Thank you also for the extremely generous donations of food cards. Those will last through a large part of the year and will be given to people as they come to us for help.

Thank you to the crew who helped divide all the food and bring it to where it needed to go. It was a mammoth undertaking and your help was greatly appreciated. Thank you to Karen Diamond, Alice and Mike Lambert, and Ellen and Rich Motlin.

Please remember that there are always two Outreach bins inside the Temple lobby doors. Please make it a habit to bring food anytime you come to the Temple or school; It will be a great mitzvah!

This is a Hatha chair approach aimed at building body strength for balance and flexibility for life activities such as walking, hiking, travel, dog walking, kayaking and more. Special therapeutic exercises on the Yoga mat will address typical age-related physical changes and conditions. Senior Yoga is strengthening, therapeutic and protective for body and mind. It's also social and fun. This class is also appropriate for all ages who want to get back to an exercise program after a long break.
