

B'nai Israel Reform Temple Bulletin

Rabbi Rosenthal's Message

Lately it feels like the day has barely started and the sun is already going down. The days are getting shorter and shorter. The Hebrew month of Kislev (often the end of November -December) is the darkest month of the year. And for some of us, that can make it feel a little more isolated, a little less joyous, and a little darker.

I have always felt that in my heart of hearts that this is why Hanukkah, the festival of lights feels so welcoming, we are craving connection and the warmth of light.

For me, celebrating Hanukkah at this time of year evokes that special draw of the campfire or the fireplace in the cold. There is a special radiance dancing in the flames of a fire set to keep people warm and serve as a persuasive invitation for gathering.

The flames of the hanukkah feel just as inviting. In today's day and age, our Hanukkah rituals draw people around several glowing candles with a crispy smell of latkes in the air to warm our senses. In America, we often exchange gifts, sing songs and share the story of the Maccabees and the miraculous jar of oil. All of these activities celebrate comfort, warmth and light during dark times.

At the center of this experience, like so many of our holidays, are friends and family, and the joy of being together. There is a warmth and a radiance in just spending time together.

This year, in addition to the warm and comforting focus of Hanukkah, I recall the rededication of the ancient temple, or gathering place after it was desecrated by the Greek Seleucids who sought to rid the world of Judaism.

Hanukkah wasn't only about the miracle of the oil lasting for eight nights, but a joyous moment of reentering the ancient Temple to celebrate our faith.

In recent years, we reentered our holy B'nai Israel sanctuary and building, and have been trying to once more build community, not after a rebellion, but a pandemic. And while many of the restrictions have been lifted in everyday life, we can still feel a reluctance to come out and celebrate together.

I hear that and feel it.

My hope is that this year, whether we gather in our homes, or at B'nai Israel Reform Temple for our Hanukkah Pajamukah Shabbat (December 23rd at 7:15), at our Children's Hanukkah party (December 17th at 12:15), for the community at menorah lightings (on December 18th) or assisted living visits (December 19th), that we do so with a little extra friendship and community. Invite someone from Temple you've always wanted to know a little better over to sing the blessings over the candles one night or take a friend you haven't seen in a while to a temple event. Because that love, that connection, is holy, miraculous, and full of light. Our links to one another are the flames that spark strength and hope.

I feel the need more than ever to extend that sense of family and friendship to more people, outside our most familiar circles and to venture out to be with our B'nai Israel family. Community and togetherness are what bind us together, and give us a shared purpose, in a world that doesn't always see us for who we are.

And remember, a candle's light is not diminished when it lights another candle. The light we spread when we are together nurtures our souls just as much as it enriches our family and friends' neshmas (spirits).

This year, may we spread our warmth with new friends and old, with family members and our congregational family. In doing so, we make sure that this month of Kislev is the brightest one we have ever known.

Happy Hanukkah to all!

HAPPY HANUKKAH

President's Message

Seth Berman

As December is upon us so is the season of Chanukah! That joyous festival where we recount the story of our ancestors and their struggle against their Greek-Syrian oppressors. We all know the story of only having enough oil for the seven-branch menorah for one day, but it lasted for eight.

As I continue down the path of President of this amazing Synagogue, I feel that I can tie that story into us. Our group has always made do with what we have. We have survived and run thanks to all our Lay leaders and volunteers. A great deal of the time our Lay leaders are also the volunteers. Over time we have seen less volunteers for the day-to-day activities. This can lead to burn out of those volunteers.

I will use the rest of my space to thank one of those volunteers. This person does not get enough thanks from us. Recently Sandy Weber stepped down as chair of the Ritual Committee. As chair of the committee, she took on many of the tasks that needed to be done but others weren't able to do. To go forward in our Holiday schedule, if Ritual is all that Sandy would do for us, Dayenu. It would be enough. But for Sandy it isn't. She has held positions on the Sisterhood Board, she sits on the Temple Board, she serves on nearly all committees. Onegs need to be set up or cleaned up, hello Sandy. Just as I have Jeannette to help me with so many things as president, I know that Sandy was that for Paul during his three years. The list goes on and on.

Sandy as you take a step back I can't say a big enough thank you for the congregation. And from the congregation I also want to say thank you to each person that helps keep us going. That list is far too long and I guarantee you that I will only get in trouble and leave someone out or misspell a name if I was to try and name everyone. However, please know that we thank you!

Until 2023 l'Shalom,

Seth C. Berman

Religious School News

A very special thank you to all of the families that joined us at B'nai Israel's breakfast before Religious School last month. We are so grateful for our Religious School families!

We will be celebrating Chanukah in the Religious School with a festival on December 17th. Students will end the morning lighting the menorah and singing Chanukah songs with the Cantor.

*Attention Saturday Religious School parents: Each school day ends with a Service in the Sanctuary. This is part of the Religious School day and attendance is required. All parents are encouraged to attend and participate in this Service with the students

In case of emergency school closings or delayed openings announcements will be made by email.

Parents:

Please check your email regularly for announcements of upcoming events and any missed assignments as this is our primary method of communication. If we do not have your current email address and you have not been receiving correspondences, please email us at school@bnai-israel.org with your current email address.

Please continue to bring in tzedakah, $ A Week and food for outreach!

I cannot believe that I am writing the article for the December bulletin! Where did the year go? Hanukkah will be here before we know it. We are busy planning many celebrations for Hanukkah. We hope that you will be able to join us!

We start off with the Hanukkah Party sponsored by our Sisterhood. The party will be on Saturday, December 17th starting at 12:15 p.m. It will be complete with a DJ, dancing, give aways, latkes, goodies and much more! The Hanukkah gift shop will be open on December 9th, 10th, 16th, and 17th.

On December 18th, join us in the community Menorah lightings as we bring Hanukkah celebrations to the various surrounding communities. See the schedule in this bulletin.

The next day, Monday, December 19th, we will be bringing Hanukkah to various Assisted Living facilities in the area. Please join us in attending at least one facility, as we bring prayer and music to the residents. The schedule can be found in this bulletin.

And, that is not all! Our Shabbat Hanukkah service will be on Friday, December 23rd! Don't miss out!

I have had the pleasure these past five years serving as chairperson of the Ritual Committee. I have had the privilege of working with some fabulous people. In partnership with our compassionate and passionate Rabbi Rosenthal, we have worked together on some great events and services. I feel that it is time for me to step down from this position and to make room for fresh ideas and energy. I want to thank everyone who helped me along the way. I couldn't have done it without you. A special thank you to my husband, Paul, for his unwavering support and always being there to lend a hand.

I intend to stay an active member of the Ritual committee, as well as active member of the Membership and Fundraising committees, the Temple Board and maintain my various positions on the Sisterhood Board. I wish my successor the best of luck. You will find the work very rewarding.

From the entire Ritual Committee – wishing you a bright and Joyous Hanukkah and a Happy and Healthy New Year!!

Sandy Weber

ANOTHER BLOOD CENTER EMERGENCY

Our "emergency" blood drives have become more the rule than the exception since the pandemic, and before that most years between the Thanksgiving holiday and into the New Year. This time an added problem has surfaced: personnel shortages among the Long Island Blood Center staff. Even the limited number of post-Covid drives are being cut back further and many smaller locations are being eliminated altogether. Although modest by comparison to some locations, B'nai Israel is an exception to that policy as we have a history of meeting our commitments and have been particularly helpful to the Blood Center at years' end.

We have been asked to host an abbreviated drive at the Temple on Tuesday, December 27th from 2:30 to 7:00 PM. As always, we encourage both regular and first-time donors to make plans to volunteer at that time. Donors are eligible starting at age 16 (with written parental permission) and older. Offer to schedule and bring along family members and friends. (Temple membership is not required to participate.) Repeat donors can expediate check-in with their Blood Center card and every donor must have a picture ID available.

Because of limited hours and carefully scheduled staff, appointments directly with the Blood Center are strongly encouraged by clicking or scanning the flyer, or by phone. Walk-ins are always welcome but notice in the fine print, only if space permits! We will do our best to accommodate everyone. A pair of "donor socks" will be offered to all who show up to donate, but the real incentive is to make blood available to treat emergencies and medical situations within our Long Island community. The need is especially dire during the holiday season so please do what you can help.

Thank you!

The College Connection

B'nai Israel would like to stay in touch with our young Temple members who are away at school. With Hannukah greetings coming up very shortly, please send the name and school address of your college student(s) to membership@bnai-israel.org.

Membership Opportunity

Our Constitution states that children of Temple families are no longer considered members once they reach the age of 23 and are self-supporting. At any time thereafter, Temple policy provides for a full year of membership at no cost to the children of member families in good standing. The opportunity is available once for each child. There are no strings attached. A membership application is available on the Temple web site or by calling the Office at 631-563-1660.

A Reminder

A long-standing B'nai Israel policy states that firearms are not permitted in either of our Temple buildings. That policy remains in effect on Temple property without regard to any recent or future changes to less restrictive Federal, State or local law. The cooperation of members and guests is essential to maintain the safety of our Congregation and that of responding law enforcement personnel.

Outreach Report

Alice Lambert

I'm writing this as we are approaching Thanksgiving, and I'm so thankful to all of you for your generosity throughout the year.

Please remember that there are still many organizations to which donations can be made. HIAS to help Ukraine, and the LI Coalition for the Homeless are still in need of help.

Donations of non-perishable food are always needed by the food pantry. The brown bins in the temple lobby are always there for you to put food any time you come into the temple.

Happy Chanukah!

Dear "Sisters,"

December is upon us, there is a chill in the air. Who can believe that 2022 is almost over? As of this writing we are anticipating a beautiful and inspirational evening at the Interfaith Thanksgiving service, as well as an exciting evening of Line Dancing, led by Ellen Spergel.

Sisterhood continues to be busy, with great holiday events planned. Stop by the Chanukah Boutique to pick up some Chanukah items (Dec 9-10 & Dec 16-17). We have candles, dreidels, gelt, and who knows, maybe a new menorah to light up your holiday. Bring your kids (grandkids too) to the Children's Chanukah Party on Saturday, Dec 17. Sisterhood will be there early frying delicious, fresh latkes for everyone to enjoy! The Rabbi will lead holiday singing and there will be a DJ, games, prizes, and FUN! Sisterhood will hold a Chanukah Gift Exchange with a twist on Tuesday, Dec 20. Bring a wrapped gift valued at $20 and snacks to share for an entertaining night. Do not forget the community menorah lightings on Sunday, Dec 18 with the Rabbi.

Our in-person meetings and events are drawing a lot of attention! The ladies are anxious to socialize, have a few laughs and enjoy an evening out. We had a hybrid board meeting in November that we hope to continue with. Please join us and take part in the fun. We have an activity for everyone. Bingo is coming, Book Talk in January, Military Bridge in the spring. Help to bring Sisterhood and the Temple back to the active community that we all want and need.

Ken and I would like to wish everyone a Happy Chanukah and a Healthy New Year.
