

B'nai Israel Reform Temple Bulletin

Rabbi Rosenthal's Message

As far back as I can remember, we have always celebrated Purim as a kid's holiday. We dress in costume, we often have a shepil that contains songs and kid friendly themes, we gather to hear the megillah which contains the story of Purim, we sing joyous songs, we eat triangular hamantaschen cookies, we make noise with our graggers, and we have a festive carnival. These events are amazing, and we will continue to celebrate them. But today, I'd like to spend some time talking about how Purim is actually an adult holiday.

Truly Purim is full of several mature moments and themes. Traditionally, we consume liquor until we can't recognize blessed Mordechai from cursed Haman, we tell a story that is full of innuendo and violence (75,000 people die), and there is a deep universal theme for all ages and Jews everywhere: antisemitism is real and it's important to stand up against hatred.

At its core, though, Purim is a holiday of celebrating our victory over those who wish to harm us. The rejoicing is what we tend to focus on and that is legitimate. The world can be dark and celebrating our successes and our bravery is a wonderful thing to do. And that should never be limited to kids.

This is one of many reasons that we are expanding our Purim offerings this year. In addition to the fabulous festive carnival, we will also have our first ever Purim masquerade for adults on Saturday, March 4th. It will be an opportunity to socialize, eat together, dance and have fun! We will hear a few brief moments of the Purim story from Achashverosh's guests, but the real focus will be on rejoicing and spending quality time together.

Judaism provides the opportunity to try new things, to explore our religion, and to highlight the many varied themes embedded within each holiday. It's one of the aspects about Judaism that I love, and I love to see it being embraced by the community as well. So a special thank you to Sandy Weber who is behind so much of the creativity of this exciting event along with all who will be working behind the scenes to make it come to fruition.

I hope you will join us, participate in the raffle and dance the night away. We encourage you to have a little fun and dress up, wear a mask, or a costume if you'd like, but they are certainly not required. I plan to wear a fancy mask along with a nice dress.

In addition to this marvelous masquerade, we will be celebrating Purim during Friday night services, March 3rd at 7:15 with traditional Purim songs, a short megillah reading and a costume parade for kids and kids at heart. Saturday March 4th, right after religious school, Allison Rothstein and Alysha Abrams will be organizing a Purim carnival with traditional treats and games.

Purim is a wonderful holiday full of varied themes for all ages. We look forward to highlighting a few additional traditions this year and wish everyone a Chag Purim Sameach, a Happy Purim!

President's Message

Seth Berman

As winter turns to spring and we get excited for the warmer weather, I ask that we think about those in the world who have come upon difficult times. By now we are all familiar with the tragedy that befell those in Turkey and Syria. As Alice Lambert mentioned in her Outreach article in this edition of the bulletin, we cannot watch idly. I hope that you will consider donating to the UJA Earthquake Relief Fund. You can donate directly from our website.

Also, as spring arrives so does Purim! I hope that everyone takes part in at least one of the functions that we have going on. I know that everyone involved is working hard to make this fun holiday even more fun this year!

I will conclude by asking for anyone who is interested in volunteering to please contact the temple office. Whether it be our needing help checking people in on Friday night or Saturday B'nai Mitzvah services, or working Ducks' games or sitting on committees, we need your help. If you can spare some time, please let us know.

Todah Raba and l'Shalom,

Seth C. Berman

PLAY BALL with the Long Island Ducks

Joel Silverman

As major league baseball begins spring training this week, our Long Island Ducks are preparing for a full season of baseball beginning in early May. And once again B'nai Israel is gearing up for its biggest fund-raising opportunity of the year by working concessions stands and earning a 10% commission on sales of food and beverages. A big change for the upcoming season is the chance to work more games during the week in addition to our big money-makers on Saturday nights. Some food prices have been raised again this year which means more in commissions on every sale at every game.

To put it in perspective, during the 2022 season we earned just over $22,000 in what we call "outside" money, meaning the income is from a source other than the Temple family. It cost us nothing out-of-pocket - only the investment in time our members spend volunteering at the Ducks stadium in Central Islip. This is not only our most profitable fund-raiser but earns more net income than all other fund-raisers combined. Our income is limited only by how many people we can sign-up to work a given game. Our help is always welcomed by concession management. As always, more volunteers are needed!

No one is expected to work every game or even most of the games. As we did last season, we strive to have no one work more than one game in a given week, and never any more than can be handled comfortably. If you've worked with us before we'll reach out and ask that you do so again this year. If you've never done it before, please offer to give it a try. (With more weeknight games available to us it may be helpful to first try a lightly attended mid-week game before jumping into a Saturday night sell-out situation!)

Volunteers must be at least 16 years old and everyone must be physically able to work on their feet for an extended period of time. Cash registers are tablet-based and easy to learn and operate. Training is on-the-job. With an early start and some practice before the game, everyone is ready to go by the time the gates open. Uniform hats and tee shirts are provided.

If all this looks familiar, it should. B'nai Israel and the Long Island Ducks have worked together for years. Our opportunity to benefit has never been greater, nor the need for outside income more important. But as always, without volunteers it can't happen. The Ducks season begins at home May 2nd, 3rd, 4th and Saturday night May 6th with the first big Saturday night fireworks game. (B'nai Israel does not participate in Friday night games.) Each month's schedule will appear in the Temple bulletin or see the full season on the LI Ducks web site. A pocket schedule is available in the Temple lobby.

For questions or to volunteer (it's never too early!) email ducks@bnai-israel.org.

Religious School News

Religious School Sabbath for Grades 3 & 4 will be on March 10th at 7:15 pm. The third and fourth grade students will be participating in the service. Please come and worship with your family at this very special service!

Purim Carnival will be March 4th immediately following Religious School. Don't miss this special holiday event for the kids!

Passover is quickly approaching. The Religious School Seders will be Saturday, April 1st for grades PreK-6 and Monday, April 3rd for Grade 7.

Due to winter weather conditions, the shelves at the pantry have become depleted. Your generosity is greatly appreciated in donating food and food gift cards. *Please remember to bring food for outreach, and tzedakah**

Movie Night was a huge success!
Keep your eyes open for the next family event!!

Outreach Committee Report

Alice Lambert

Spring will be here very soon, and with it comes Purim and then Passover on its heels. Crocuses and daffodils will begin to bloom and we will all be looking forward to sharing time with our own families and our congregational family.

This is also the season to be thinking about tzedakah and helping others who have had a hard winter, because of illness or the high costs of everything. The shelves of the food pantry are not full and need our help. Please help us to fill those shelves by bringing non-perishable food to the Temple or school every time you come.

Donations of supermarket or pharmacy gift cards are very much appreciated. There are many people who have been helped by receiving these cards; they are able to buy much-needed food and other necessities for their families.

As always, thank you for your generosity and thoughtfulness.

Earthquake Relief

Once again we are all feeling devastated by horrific death toll and destruction; this time it is caused by the earthquake in Turkey and Syria. We can not watch idly! AS part of the human community and the Jewish community we must try to help in whatever way we can. To that end, we are asking for donations to the UJA's Earthquake Relief Fund.

The UJA is closely monitoring needs with our global partners, who are on the ground providing emergency medical services, critical supplies, and psychosocial services. !00% of the funds will be used to help individuals and communities affected by the crisis.

We are asking everyone to dig as deeply as they can to make a donation to the UJA's Earthquake Relief Fund. You can go to the Temple's website and donate online, or you can send a check, made out to B'nai Israel, directly to the Temple.

Thank you, in advance, for your generosity in helping the people affected by the earthquake.

Membership Matters from the Membership Committee

Who Are You? We want to know your name!

To that end, next time you attend Shabbat services or other Temple events you'll find that we've made name tags available to our members and guests. Often, regular Temple-goers recognize faces of fellow Congregants, but can't put a name to a face. Whether you are an occasional visitor, a long-time member returning or a new member, it would be nice to know your name and get to know you better.

Although actually wearing a name tag will be optional, we encourage everyone to "buy-in" as our congregational "recovery" from Covid continues. We hope to see you at services or other Temple events sometime soon.

Dynamic Chair Yoga with Bonnie Rubell

Dynamic Chair Yoga is an intermediate level yoga class held at our Temple every Thursday morning at 10:30 am.

This is an active yoga class for fit seniors who want to start or continue their yoga practices. This class presents modifications for many yoga poses. Students choose the modifications which work best for them. This is a Hatha chair approach aimed at building body strength for balance and flexibility for life activities such as walking, hiking, travel, dog walking, kayaking and more. Special therapeutic exercises on the Yoga mat will address typical age-related physical changes and conditions. Senior Yoga is strengthening, therapeutic and protective for body and mind. It's also social and fun. This class is also appropriate for all ages who want to get back to an exercise program after a long break.

PASSOVER DINNER SEDER

Shalom Chaverim,

Passover is a time for family, community, and celebration. It is not only a recognition of our past freedom, but a reminder that there is much work to do in order to ensure freedom for all in present times.

Please join us for our in -person Annual Temple Passover Seder on Wednesday, April 5, 2023 at 7:00 pm as our congregational family celebrates these themes throughout our seder.

During the evening, we will enjoy a Kosher for Passover dinner, participate in Passover rituals, sing seder songs, and enjoy a sweet dessert.

We strongly encourage you to get your reservations in early as this event has proven to be very popular and space will be limited. The special "EARLY BIRD" cost of $59.00 per person is limited to Temple affiliates and their families. This cost must be paid in full by March 2, 2023. After that, the cost for Temple affiliates and their families will be $69.00 per person. The cost for children age 12 and under will be $30.00 per person until March 2, 2023 and $40.00 per child thereafter. As per the caterer, there will be absolutely no reservations accepted after March 14, 2023.

Looking forward to celebrating Passover together in person!

Wishing you all a Chag Passover Sameach, a wonderful Passover!

Sisterhood

March 2023

Shalom! As of this writing, Thea and Ken are away on a much-deserved vacation and I offered to pen this month's bulletin article. With spring approaching it is time to think about Passover. The Women's Seder Committee is busy planning our yearly event.

Women's Seders began in the mid 1970's when Esther Broner hosted a dozen Jewish feminist activists including Gloria Steinem and Letty Cottin Pogrebin. Today, women's seders are held all over the world, raising questions, sharing experiences and re-interpreting familiar rituals and prayers. The first women's haggadah was published in Ms. Magazine in 1976. Since then, women's haggadot have continuously developed, often including the Wise Women, the Four Daughters, the Women's Questions, The Women's Plagues, and a women-version Dayanu.

(Sources: O. Harrison, Bust.com; Ritualwell.org; JWA.org)

Using resources like Haggadot.com, I scoured the internet to create a new Haggadah for our Sisterhood Women's Seder. Please join us on March 21, as we celebrate Jewish women - past and present - with song, ritual, story, and prayer. Come fill Miriam's Cup and enjoy a light taste of Seder!
