

B'nai Israel Reform Temple Bulletin

Rabbi Rosenthal's Message

During the month of July, I find floating in the pool to be one of the most relaxing experiences possible. The gentle waves and the ability to see nature all around me fill me with peace and calm. We all need that, maybe not in a pool, but through an activity that helps us feel calm and connected and allows us to let the stress and the challenges of the world melt away.

Another activity I find to be healing is shabbat. At home, having a sit-down dinner with the family and saying the blessing together while sharing our individual moments of gratitude is wonderful. And services offer me a place to sing out, to set aside the chaos of the week and to concentrate on family and community. Shabbat makes me feel whole and joyful.

So, it's no surprise that one of my favorite Shabbat experiences at B'nai Israel is the perfect blending of the two, Shabbat at the beach. There is something so soothing about the sound of the waves and so special about the soft sand beneath our feet. There is nothing better than taking in the healing sounds of nature mixed with our prayer and song. I hope you will join us for our Shabbat at the Beach this month on Friday, July 21, 2023. Folks are invited to bring dinner and schmooze starting at 6:00 by the new playground, and to join in our service at 6:30 pm.

Nature in general is a wonderful opportunity to connect with Jewish roots. July is a month of beauty, especially on Long Island. It is the perfect time to visit farms, and to pick a fruit or vegetable. It is one of the best times to hike, garden or simply sit outside in the shade and sip a cool drink.

These activities aren't just relaxing, but also connect us to our Jewish roots. In Genesis 2:15, we are called to be guardians of the earth, Shomrei Adamah. It is up to us to preserve our earth, and to connect to it deeply. The best way to begin on this journey is to enjoy the beauty and bounty that nature has to offer.

Our rituals even have roots in the natural world as they are largely developed from the farming and agricultural cycles of our ancient ancestors.

In addition, Judaism teaches us to find gratitude. Traditionally, we are tasked with reciting 100 blessings each day. When we are outside, it's easy to look everywhere and find moments of awe.

For some, it is important to look inward, to find healing and peace. Mindful breathing and a simple recitation of the shema, holding on to each syllable as it is spoken or sung can be immensely gratifying and remind us of the importance of focusing on adding holiness into our lives, instead of dwelling on day-to-day frustrations.

And certainly, picking up a good Jewish book can be refreshing, and offer new insights into our tradition, linking us to a religious community that has continued to adapt and find meaning within our beautiful faith. For a large list of Jewish books check out some URJ recommendations for all ages: <https://reformjudaism.org/tags/books>

Wishing everyone all the healing, comfort and Jewish connection that we seek this July and beyond.

President's Message

Seth Berman

There are many times I wonder if my articles in the bulletin go unread. Thank you to those who contacted me regarding my article last month. I also wonder if my explaining our current financial situation makes a difference.

Just this week I am happy to say that we received an anonymous donation to offset the increase in our insurance cost. While we have had some rather large donations, this donation to my recollection is the largest single donation since I have been involved on the board.

Being that I can't personally thank the donor as even myself am not aware of who they are I want to take the time here to thank them. If at some point you feel comfortable to come to me and talk, I would really like to shake your hand. Thank you/Todah Raba doesn't seem like enough to say.

As summer has begun and we all start to have our fun with all of the outdoor activities that living on Long Island afford us can I take a few short sentences to remind you that B'nai Israel is open all summer. Please remember that we have services every Friday night. We have seen an increase in attendance on Friday nights, have you been to a service lately? If not, please come and see us. Our services are better with you there!

Are you single and looking to get together with other singles from B'nai Israel? A group has been formed with just you in mind! You can call the temple office or look online or in the bulletin or in the weekly e-mails for more information.

Do you want to help B'nai Israel reach our goal for income from working Ducks games? Again information can be found online or you can contact ducks@bnai-israel.org if you are willing and able to help us.

On July 21st we will have our annual Shabbat at the Beach. Please make note of the special time of this service at 6 PM. The beach is located at the end of Foster Avenue in Sayville. Come early and bring a picnic dinner!

As I finish my message I want to give a huge thank you to Paul Weber. Paul has made the decision to step back from the executive board. Paul put a lot of time and effort into his time on the executive board and I am grateful that he will continue to serve on the board.

Until next month l'Shalom,

Seth C. Berman

Outreach Committee Report

Alice Lambert

Please remember that while we're all out there having fun with our families, whether at local beaches or away on vacation, there are many people who still need our help. Bills and food needs do not take vacations and are real problems throughout the summer.

Please continue to bring non-perishable foods and personal hygiene items when you come into the Temple. We check the food containers all the time, and when they are full we deliver the donations to the Sayville Food Pantry.

A special thank you to B'nai Israel Sisterhood for your very generous donations at the Sisterhood Installation Service in June. We appreciate your continuing support.

Membership Matters

Our temple greeters have been so pleased to see more members returning to Friday night services. Praying and singing together as a community is a wonderful way to welcome the Sabbath and the weekend. We plan to continue more opportunities to gather as a community during the summer. In addition to the Sisterhood Bingo event on July 8th and the Shabbat at the beach on July 21st, save the date for a "Meet, Greet, and Eat" event on Sunday, August 6, 2023. Join us in the Temple Social Hall for an elaborate bagel breakfast and a special "get to know each other" activity. Members and their guests will be welcome. You will be able to RSVP to the temple office or online. Your RSVP is important for ordering our breakfast.

Leisurely Single group

If you have some free time and want to join our group activities and you are single, give us a try. We hope to do a variety of activities to accommodate our many interests. Ten of us met at the Airpott Diner in June. We ate well and enjoyed the stories and company of the group. We welcomed 3 new people. Our next meeting will be on July 7. We will meet at Saviano's at 5:30 for dinner and go to B'nai Israel for Shabbat services. Please call Barbara at 631-224-1445 if you would like to join us.

Some of us will be getting to Sayville Beach around 5 PM with a boxed dinner to meet before our Shabbat Service on the Beach at 6 PM on July 21st. Our August 9, meeting at the Bayard Cutting Arboretum has been rescheduled for October 18, as the weather will be cooler. We are looking into the High Tea service they offer. Once a time is confirmed we will post. We are working on plans for a day out East for August. Exact dates and time will be announced. Hope you can join us for one or more of our activities.

Long Island Ducks Fundraiser Update

Joel Silverman

Through the first two full months of Ducks baseball B'nai Israel has had an opportunity to work concession stands at three sold-out Saturday night fireworks nights and has averaged over $1,500 in income on each occasion.

Three more Saturday nights are scheduled in the month of July and our profit is limited only by the number of volunteers we can commit to concession management. If you would be available to pitch in on July 1st, 15th or 29th and are willing to give it a try, volunteer (or refer any questions to) ducks@bnai-israel.org. No experience necessary. We welcome potential cashiers and runners as well to help support the cashiers. We report to the stadium in Central Islip at 5:00 PM and work through the evening, generally ending by 9:00 or 9:30 PM. Some stamina is required to keep up with the needs of a sell-out crowd and earn both commissions and tips for the Temple.

Check our weekly Thursday morning announcements for regular Ducks updates and any additional concession opportunities that come along from time to time.

Income earned at Ducks games represents B'nai Israel's most lucrative fund raiser and can exceed all other fund-raising activities combined, given enough volunteers. Please offer to help us if you can. Thanks.

Religious School News

Registration forms for 2023-24 have already been emailed to you. If you did not receive them, please call the Temple office or visit the Temple website. Please return them as soon as possible! Please remember that after August 8th there will be a $25 late fee to re-register.

Again, this year we are offering the chance to register your children for Pre-K/Kindergarten for no fee. We hope you will take advantage of this special opportunity.

The presentation of the Ira Rosenfeld Scholarship will be on July 7th at the 7:15 pm Family Service.

Summer Religious School Hebrew Classes

This year we will be again holding four summer evening Hebrew classes. The recommended donation is $18 for all four classes. It is not necessary to attend all four sessions. The dates will be on Tuesdays from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm on July 18th, July 25th, August 1st and August 22nd. We encourage students to take advantage of these classes as they will ensure your child's continued success in Religious School because so many students missed so many classes this year due to illness or quarantine. We encourage students to attend these sessions.
